Continuation Sheet (PTOL-462)

Continuation of 10. Other (including any explanation in support of the above items): With regard to statement 1 above, the Appeal Brief contains a section labeled Background on page 6, which does not allow for the proper order of the headings. The appeal brief may only contain the headings listed under 37 CFR 41.37.

With regard to statement 4 above, the brief does not contain a concise explanation of the subject. Page 8 of the brief contains three paragraphs at the end of the section, which are not directed towards the subject matter defined in the independent claims, thereby not making the a concise explanation.

With regard to statement 6 above, the brief does not present an argument under a separate heading for each ground of rejection. Any claim argued separately should be placed under a subheading identifying the claim by number. Applicant has argued dependent claims in multiple locations in the argument section without identifying the claim with a subheading. The applicant has also included a subheading on page 16, which is not directed to either a claim being argued individual or a single ground of rejection.
